

The Surfing Australia Registration system

The following information is very important. Please take the time to read this carefully. It is on our records that you were registered and have completed the Judging development course in the past. Surfing Australia recognises that you have completed the full judging course and is now offering you the opportunity to maintain the minimum accreditation.

To maintain your accreditation and registration you now have three options. Payments can pay by credit card through our automated and online system. At www.surfingaustralia.com

Click on Education and follow the link to Judging. Click on your preferred Australian Judging Register Program option on the left side.

Every course participant must complete the accreditation requirement of 20 hours of judging experience to be accredited as a Level 2 or 3 Judge/Official.

OPTION 1 –

Level 1 Surfing Australia Club Judge
$25 per year

You are not required to submit hours of experience at this accreditation level.

You will be registered with Surfing Australia as an accredited Level 1 club official. This will enable you to officiate at club events. Payment of your registration fee will reinstate you on the National Officials database and you will receive the current rulebook, Judges ID card, news and information.
